Definitely luxurious and pricey but the food and overall ambience is worth the money, if you can afford. Their customer service is one of the best in Accra and the food will please your taste buds leaving you eager to visit Japan. They have a variety of menu options but their pork belly and prawn tempuras happen to be my favorite items on their.. oh and for desert, finish your course with their yuzu cheesecake. read more. Santoku from Ghana is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, The magical desserts of the establishment also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. But the undisputed highlight of this place is the delicious Sushi such as Maki and Sashimi, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied assortment of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
