Went there on a Weekend lunch, relatively quiet. Starter items included a brika with minced meat (not tuna) which was as good as it gets, a salad, meat stew which was good and coucous which was rather dry. The main courses we ordered weren't up to standard. The dried fruit meat was almost burnt in parts touching the pan and was too sweet and the stuffed calamari was just too bland and tasteless both were recommended... read more. El-walima from Franceville delivers delectable, light Mediterranean cuisine with its typical dishes, and you can look forward to the fine classic seafood cuisine. In this restaurant there is also an large selection of coffee and tea specialties not to forget.
