Friday night dinner. Regularly popping in to this place for Dinner and never disappointed. Sweet and sour Chicken with noodles is a favorite. Place is always neat and clean. With very affordable menu options. They also have an indoor shop for all your food requirements. Sometimes you can wait up to an hour for your take-out due to them being so busy. read more. What User doesn't like about Beijing Chinese:

THE WORST SUSHI!!! PAID R375 for sushi. Looked like the dog's breakfast. Rice tasted burnt; sushi was not properly prepared and packaged. Very disappointed. Another customer lost, but I suppose the owners do not care...they got their money. Just be warned; word of mouth have shut down plenty of eateries. read more. For those who want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, Beijing Chinese from Johannesburg is a good bar, Many customers find it especially great that they can try the versatile, fine Chinese cuisine. The menus are prepared according to typical Asian style, Furthermore, the customers love the creative combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental products - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
