This cafe was such a dose of fresh air in the city. I absolutely loved the open space outside and the sitting area. It's such a beautiful place to have breakfast with your loved one, friends and family. It's cosy and relaxing. Just how you should start your day. The service was a bit slow, not sure why cause it's not such a big place really. I also didn't enjoy the pancakes much. They were good maybe just not sweet e... read more.
